The Washtenaw County Trial Court and Friend of the Court, recommend that you try your very hardest to resolve parenting time disputes with the other parent before contacting the Friend of the Court. If you file a complaint, please complete the form below. The Friend of the Court Parenting Time Advisor/Evaluator will forward a copy of the complaint to the other parent. The Friend of the Court will review that parent's response to determine whether your allegations show a wrongful denial of court ordered parenting time. If the Friend of the Court finds that a wrongful denial has occurred, a recommendation will be made for makeup parenting time, modification of the parenting time order or further enforcement action. The Friend of the Court determination will be provided to both parents in writing. If no violation is found, the parents will be advised in writing of their options to resolve the dispute.

THE FRIEND OF THE COURT DOES NOT INVESTIGATE ALLEGATIONS OF ABUSE OR NEGLECT. YOU WILL NEED TO CONTACT CHILDREN'S PROTECTIVE SERVICES IN THE COUNTY WHERE YOUR CHILD(REN) LIVE.
